About

I trained as an actor in Scotland between 94 and 97. I have a BA in Theatre Arts. I have worked solidly for Mischief la-bas since graduating. They are a professional entertainment, walk about street theatre company. I have also performed in many plays in Glasgow, the most recent being Death of a Salesman by Arthur Miller. I have been in quite a few commercials and a series of Taggart. I have been in one feature film and 2 shorts. I have continued to use my acting skills with Mischief up until January 15. Before moving over to WA.
